

Dear Santa,

* Hello, I'm happy that you're doing a good job. My birthday is on November 8th. So also I hope you're doing good. So what I want for Christmas is a ~~spr~~ayground backpack, a labubu, and a hello kitty plushie. I want that stuff is because, my school backpack is kinda old, so I really want a new one. The reason I want a labubu is because people say it's "haunted" I want it to scare people with it * on Halloween. I really want a hello kitty plushie so I can gift it to my little sister because she always wanted one. This is all I want. I hope you have a good christmas!
