

Dear Santa, we meet again.
* If it's possible, I would like the first book of the A Good Girls Guide to Murder (A GGGTM) series. I want that book for personal interests. I also had watched the show, not knowing it was a book, and everybody knows the books are better than the movies or shows. I would also like a binder for school, if you can I would like the colors, purple, green, blue or the pastel/light versions of those colors. Lastly, I would like a small house plant. I want this because my mom and I love plants and it would look so cute in the house. Thank you for your kindness!
