

Dear Santa, My Name is Seneiya. I am 12* years old and I live in North Philadelphia, I don't want to lie so this year I have been mostly good, I try my*best but sometimes I can't control my anger/emotions. I don't want to go too deep about my emotions so I'll just tell you what I would love for you to get me for you * to get me for Christmas, First, I would like Victoria's Secret Fragrance Mist Collection & Peice MINE Gift Set, I know that I'm older so I care about more materialistic things but I would really appreciate this, Also, * I would like the book Hate Love by Matthew A. * Cherry, for context this book goes into little African-American girls hate textures and the pros and cons of it. Lastly, I would like my family to get along, NO ONE knows how to use their words so they go straight to fighting.
