

Dear Santa,

* For Christmas I would like a football. I want a football because I play football. Also because I lost it at a cook out. I will also want a sprayground book bag. The reason why is because I need a new book bag. Also it's because it's been my dream book bag. Last but not least I will want a pair's towel. I want it because my granma really loves pair's. Another reason why is because I want to make my granma happy.
